

THE BANK OF MYSORE, LIMITED, BANGALORE.

Statement of the affairs of the Bank of Mysore, Limited, for the week ending

24th June 1920, published under Article 141 of the Articles of Association.

| LIABILITIES                  |             | ASSETS                            |             |
|------------------------------|-------------|-----------------------------------|-------------|
|                              | Rs.         |                                   | Rs.         |
| To Capital Receipts          | 14,00,000   | By cash in hand and at Bankers    | 22,19,832   |
| To Reserve Fund              | 5,50,000    | By loans and cash credit accounts | 72,37,472   |
| To Public and other deposits | 92,00,505   | By bills discounted               | 3,50,023    |
| To Sundries                  | 2,22,414    | By investments                    | 13,49,273   |
| (Annas and pies omitted.)    |             | By balance at Agencies            | 50,938      |
|                              |             | By dead stock                     | 1,20,210    |
|                              |             | By sundries                       | 45,171      |
| Total Rs.                    | 1,13,72,919 | Total Rs.                         | 1,13,72,919 |

R. SUBBA RAO,
Offg. Manager.

VACANCY.

SURVEY HEADQUARTERS OFFICE.

Dated 28th June 1920.

MAPPERS.

Applications in the prescribed form are invited for the post of mappers in the Survey Headquarters Office. Applicants should have passed at least the Mysore Lower Secondary or other equivalent Examination; or an Examination in drawing, should have strong and clear eye-sight and be able to write a neat hand. Out of the applicants, 5 will be selected and taken on probation for six months on a pay of Rs. 15 per mensem. If satisfactory progress is shown during the probationary period, they will be made mappers on a pay of Rs. 20 rising therefrom to higher grades according to rules in force.

Applications should reach the undersigned by the 20th July 1920.

D. SRINIVASA RAO,

Assistant Commissioner.

With the Compliments of the Joint Honorary Secretary Imperial Indian Relief Fund.

PRESS COMMUNIQUE.

IMPERIAL INDIAN RELIEF FUND.

The total sum received by way of subscriptions to the Central Imperial Indian Relief Fund from the date of its inception up to the 30th April 1920, was Rs. 2,24,98,000. The interest upon the sums placed at fixed deposit amounted to about Rs. 16,65,000, bringing the total income of the Central Fund up to Rs. 2,41,63,000. The expenditure up to the same date amounted to Rs. 1,85,60,000, the principal items being:—

Placed at the disposal of Brigade Area Committees, etc., for the immediate relief of distress among the families of soldiers absent on field service and for the payment of donations to men permanently disabled and to the heirs of deceased soldiers and followers

75,55,000*

Placed at the disposal of local Governments and Administrations for the relief of distress among certain classes of dependants of Indian soldiers

4,54,000

* Of this amount about Rs. 22½ lakhs was expended on the grant of relief to men returned from the front who proceeded on sick leave to their homes. The concession was withdrawn in January 1917.

Rs.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |           |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Donations to the Soldiers and Sailors Families Association                                                                                                                                                                                 | 4,31,000  |
| Donations to the Officers' Families Fund                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 2,91,000  |
| Donations to the Indian Soldiers' Fund                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 1,00,000  |
| Donations to the Indian Comforts for Troops Fund                                                                                                                                                                                           | 5,34,000  |
| Donations to the St. John Ambulance Association                                                                                                                                                                                            | 64,000    |
| Donations to the Queen Mary's Technical School for disabled Indian Soldiers, Bombay, and to the Government Railway Technical School, Lahore                                                                                                | 38,000    |
| Payments to officers and crews of vessels sunk by the enemy                                                                                                                                                                                | 1,09,000  |
| Assistance to convalescent officers                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 8,92,000  |
| For extra medical comforts for the sick and wounded                                                                                                                                                                                        | 3,70,000  |
| Relief to the families of Postal and Telegraph employees proceeded on active service                                                                                                                                                       | 25,000    |
| Placed at the disposal of local Governments and administrations for post-bellum relief to the families and dependants of deceased Indian officers and men                                                                           | 43,26,000 |
| Placed at the disposal of Controllers of Military Accounts for post-bellum relief to incapacitated Indian officers, soldiers and followers admitted to wound and injury pensions of the 1st and 2nd degree                          | 12,79,000 |
| Placed at the disposal of the Officers' Families Fund for post-bellum relief to the families and dependants of deceased British officers of the Indian Services and to British officers of Indian Services incapacitated by the war | 20,14,000 |
| Placed at the disposal of the heads of departments for post-bellum relief to the families and dependants of deceased European and Anglo-Indian Civil and Military departmental employees                                            | 55,000    |

The balance in hand of the Central Fund on the 30th April 1920 was Rs. 56,03,000.

2. During April 1920. the subscriptions received by the Central Fund amounted to Rs. 23,763, while the disbursements during the same period amounted to Rs. 7,79,889 respectively.

SIMLA.

The 10th June 1920.